DECEMBER START PLANNED FOR 'GOLFER'S GOLF COURSE'

By FRED C. WEIGEL

Construction of the $1,000,000 luxury clubhouse at Eldorado Country Club will get under way early next month, with completion expected in time for the Ryder Cup Matches in November 1959, and the improvement will run the cost of the desert area's newest golf facility — Eldorado Country Club, to in excess of $4,000,000.

Official announcement of the start of the $1,000,000 clubhouse was made this week by the general partners in the project at the home of Robert P. McCulloch, president of the Eldorado Country Club, where detailed plans and renderings of the project were given the final stamp of approval.

PRESENT AT THE meeting, aside from president McCulloch, were other general partners J. Ross Clark, Ronald Williams, Jimmy Hines, and John Dawson, along with William Daugherty, club manager; Charles Bunting, Eldorado controller; William F. Cody of William F. Cody & Ernest J. Kump, architectural associates; and H. M. "Mike" Eversz, construction co-ordinator.

Tables, centerpieces and floors were covered with plans for the building and the surrounding area, and indicated that many hundreds of hours of planning and re-planning had gone into the building which will set a new mode in design for golfers and golf enthusiasts alike.

With the help of Architect Bill Cody, this reporter was "taken on a tour of the building."

AS YOU DRIVE into the grounds of the Country Club you see a long, low building of contemporary architecture located directly ahead of you on a high knoll overlooking the beautiful fairways and lakes of Eldorado. The building contains a total of 35,000 square feet.

In front of the building, a fountain and pool accent the planted islands between the parking spaces in the 250 car parking lot. To the right of the main entrance is a special golf-players entrance is located, to allow a golfer immediate access to the pro shop without going through the main building.

Through the main entrance, the visitor first notices on the left a private dining room or lounge patio, planted with indoor plants. Ahead of him is the combination main lounge, bar and dining room, built in an area 112 feet by 40 feet. This room is glassed on three sides and visitors can look out and see four greens and four tees of the total of eighteen.

BEYOND THE GLASS the ground slopes off toward the fairways and greens, and a short distance out you can see the famed seven lakes of Eldorado.

One of the newest features of any golf club anywhere is yet to be seen. Under the floor of the main lounge is a golf cart concourse, designed so that golf carts can be driven into and out of the building. On the lower deck is a store room for golf bags, garage for private cars and a parking area for club cars. On the south wall of the concourse is a caddy room equipped for 50 caddies, a snack bar, and the sides of the concourse are open to the outside. In the southwest corner of the large lower level main room you can see part of another lake which will run from indoors to outside. A long, underground ramp will run out the west end directly to the number one tee.

Back on the main floor again, the west end of the building will house the pro shop, steam and masseur rooms, locker rooms, patio, card room, golf tournament office and press room. On the east end of the building will be the kitchen, service yards, and quarters for help.

THE KITCHEN is so located as to serve the bar, lounge, dining room, private dining room-lounge, and club cottages.

The outside of the building is done in masonry with pre-cast pillars which will run from the lower concourse through the main part of the building to the roof.

Another new development that will be put into the building will be steam absorption, gas-fired air conditioners, which will run on separately controlled and ducted outlets in each area. Each immediate area can set the temperature as hot or cold as desired and air conditioning units in certain rooms can be closed down while in other rooms it is allowed to run.

THE BUILDING'S glassed-in porch — overlooking the golf course — is 162 feet long and the building is 360 feet in length.

When the building was designed by Cody and Kump, they set it up so that the entire building is constructed in three courts, each containing its own complete set

Caril Fugate Guilty; Given Life Term

Teenager Sobs After Jury Says She Aided Killer

LINCOLN, Nev. — (UPI) — A district court jury today convicted 15-year-old Caril Ann Fugate of first-degree murder and imposed a sentence of life imprisonment on the tiny eighth-grader.

The seven men and five women reached their decision at 8:30 a.m. (p.s.t.), but it was not announced until 40 minutes later when Judge Harry A. Spencer convened his Lancaster County District Court.

CARIL'S FATE WAS announced to newsmen jammed in a hallway outside the courtroom, moments after the solemn-faced jurors filed back into the courtroom after more than a day of deliberation.

As Bailiff Bill Paulson read the verdict to reporters, it was read simultaneously inside the courtroom by the jury foreman.

Under Nebraska law, the jury's life sentence is binding upon the court.

CARIL SPECIFICALLY was convicted of aiding and abetting mass slayer Charles Starkweather — her red-haired friend — in the murder of Robert Jensen, 17, Bennet, Neb., last Jan. 27.

Jensen was one of 10 persons slain by Starkweather during a murderous rampage across Nebraska and into Wyoming in late January.

Starkweather was convicted of the Jensen murder May 23 and sentenced to death in the electric chair. He now is awaiting an appeal to the Nebraska Supreme Court.

THE JURORS FOUND Caril guilty on both counts of helping in the slaying of Jensen and in aiding and abetting the robbery of Jensen.

Caril buried her face on the shoulder of Defense Attorney Merrill Reller and wept convulsively as the verdict was read in the tense atmosphere of the courtroom.

THE SOUND OF her hysterical sobbing was the only noise in the deathly still room. Reller patted her shoulder comfortingly as the grim jurors heard their verdict read by a court aide.

Caril's weeping could be heard above the judge's voice as he thanked the jury for its patient and thoughtful consideration of the case. She managed to raise her crimson face to look in apparent reproach at the jury box. But no juror looked at her.

Again she buried her head on Reller's shoulder and he took her in his arms.

25 Sun Carriers Hit Honor Roll

Twenty-five Desert Sun Junior Independent Merchants have been placed on the paper's honor roll for the month of October, Circulation Manager Orval Risvold announced yesterday.

"These Junior Merchants have shown outstanding ability in route management," Risvold said. "They have delivered their Desert Sun newspapers faithfully all month without a chargeable service error, paid their bills on time, demonstrated good salesmanship, and have conducted the business of running their own business in an outstanding manner."

The honor list includes ten two-time winners on the roll and 16 whose names are appearing for

DEAN OF U.S. TEST PILOTS SAYS NOT BEST--JUST ALIVE

By AL LEANCE

Picture yourself as the pilot of a Lockheed F-104 supersonic fighter, cutting through space at something like 1½ times the speed of sound—and the engine quits.

Punch the seat ejector button, just like the manual says, and what happens next?

"YOU'RE A DEAD PIGEON, that's what," says Anthony "Tony" LeVier, dean of the nation's test pilots and number one jet jockey for Lockheed Aircraft.

"You suddenly face a windblast that hits you like a brick wall and you're nothing but hamburger," said the man who's probably climbed in and out of more experimental aircraft than any other living airman.

THAT'S A THUMBNAILED portion of the speech LeVier fired at some 250 of the nation's ranking Air Force safety experts and aircraft manufacturers here yesterday.

They were trying to hash out an improved system for popping a pilot out of a disabled supersonic plane and getting him down to earth—alive.

Which is LeVier's pet project.

"THEY'RE SPENDING billions of dollars to send a gadget into orbit around the earth," he declared, "but they only spend a pittance to save the lives of air crewmen."

LeVier's language might be a bit colorful for some Air Force brass, but then he's got a reason for his candor—a very personal reason.

A husky, outspoken gent, rated as the acknowledged spokesman for all test pilots, LeVier knows what it's like to try to get out of a disabled craft hurtling toward the ground at supersonic speed.

"MY JET ENGINE exploded and blew the tail off the plane," he recalled. "I got out, but I had to hack my way out."

LeVier feels he was lucky, but he pointed out, "any pilot who climbs into a jet fighter today is putting his life out on a limb."

LeVier's life has been hanging on the same limb many times.

HOW TO BAIL OUT of a disabled jet fighter and live through it is a problem of deep personal interest to Anthony "Tony" LeVier, left, rated as the nation's top test pilot, and Maj. Gen. Victor E. Bertrandias, LeVier's views on pilot escape devices here this week at the 37th Air Force-Aircraft Industry safety conference. Gen. Bertrandias, a Palm Springs resident, created the Air-Force-Industry conference (program several years ago as a means of solving aircraft flight safety problems. (Desert Sun Photo)

He was the first pilot to test the World War II P-38, the Lockheed F-80 jet fighter of Korean War fame and the current, record-breaking F-104.

MATTER OF FACT, LeVier holds the distinction of being the only pilot ever to successfully land an F-104 after a flame-out—but then, successful dead-stick landings in planes with the glide characteristics of a brick are very rare indeed.

Why did he risk his life to bring the plane home? That's part of the "unwritten code" for test pilots.

"You bring down your plane if you think you can," he said. "It takes a lot of savvy and helluva lot of luck."

LEVIER EXPLAINED that aircraft companies invest millions of dollars and several thousand man hours in the development of a prototype aircraft they hope will be accepted by the Air Force.

Maybe one plane is accepted for every ten designed, and you have

Allies Are Consulted On New Moves

Russia Expected To Deliver New Notes in 48 Hours

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — The White House today, in the face of Russian threats to upset the four-power occupation of Berlin, said that the American government will persist in its "firm intention" to "maintain the integrity of West Berlin."

This new statement of determination for American forces to remain on the scene in Germany came after President Eisenhower, here on a golfing holiday, conferred early today by telephone with Washington officials on the tense Berlin situation.

THE PRESIDENT went to his office beside the Augusta National Golf Course at 7:50 a.m. and talked with Christian A. Herter, Deputy Secretary of State acting as head of the Department in the absence of Secretary John Foster Dulles who is on a weekend vacation.

Eisenhower also talked with Brig. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, the White House Staff Secretary, and Goodpaster's assistant, Maj. John S. Eisenhower, the President's son. Both Goodpaster and young Eisenhower recently returned from a European inspection trip.

REPORTS FROM Moscow said the Soviet government was expected to deliver within 48 hours official notes to the wartime Western Allies telling them that West Berlin belongs to Communist East Germany.

The Russians were calling American protests over the anticipated move "scandalous . . . routine brinkmanship."

THE PRESIDENT and our government are keeping in close touch with the situation in Berlin, and also, as a government, keeping in close touch with the governments of the United Kingdom and the Republic of France," Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said.

"This is not a unilateral problem for us alone, but a problem that concerns our two allies as well," he said. "Speaking for the United States Government, pointing out also that this is a situation where our Allies are being consulted, this is a situation where our firm intentions in West Berlin remain unchanged."

Mel Ott Loses Battle for Life

NEW ORLEANS — (UPI) — Mel Ott, 49-year-old Baseball Hall of Fame figure, lost his battle for life at 12:30 p.m. today. A team of eight doctors had worked around the clock in vain in an effort to save his life.

Ott suffered fatal injuries last Friday night in an automobile collision near Bay St. Louis, Miss. His wife, Mildred, also 49, remains in critical condition in a Gulfport, Miss., hospital.

Physicians said that Ott succumbed to uremia, kidney damage and multiple fractures which included six broken ribs, two broken legs, a broken arm, head and severe internal injuries.

The doctors tried everything possible to save Mr. Ott's life. A Touro infirmary spokesman said.

Power Services Conducted Today

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Tyrone Power, a matinee idol for two generations, was laid to rest today in the sacred grounds of Hollywood Cemetery.

The actor's widow wept softly as Cesar Romero, a close friend of Power's and co-star in several of his films, delivered a eulogy and Marine Corps pallbearers bore the mahogany casket to its final resting place.

Missing from the services were the mother, two daughters and first two wives of the star who died last Saturday at the age of 44 after suffering a heart attack while filming a movie in Spain.

'Windowless'

CC Classrooms Gain Board Okeh

Two new "windowless" classrooms and a kindergarten were ordered for Cathedral City School last night by the Palm Springs Board of Education.

Board members approved preliminary plans, submitted by Architect John Clark, for the refrigeration — cooled, virtually windowless rooms.

TOTAL COST OF the school project, which also includes a bus port and site fence, was set at $83,000. The construction time schedule calls for completion by next Sept. 1.

As designed by Clark, the classrooms have no side windows, but four skylights are incorporated in the roof of each room. Clark explained that full weather and lighting control indoors eliminated the need for windows.

SOME BOARD members, however, felt a "psychological problem" may be encountered with fifth and sixth grade youngsters using the classrooms. It was suggested that some children might suffer effects of "claustrophobia."

The board suggested that the architect incorporate some provision for small view windows incorporating low light transmission glass although administrators pointed out that the students were at a high enough age level to reduce the question of psychological effects of the windowless structures.

CLARK ALSO NOTED that the cost of the classrooms, totaling $31,900 each, is greatly reduced by the deletion of windows and lowering of the roof.

Final classroom plans, incorporating both the windowless and minimum window designs, will be submitted to the board in about six weeks.

'GO WESTERN' TIME NEEDS RANCH GARB, VILLAGERS REMINDED

MAYOR Frank Bogert today reminded Village visitors and residents that it's "Go Western" time again in Palm Springs.

Tomorrow—and every Saturday—is "Go Western Day" here, and western duds comprise the uniform of the day for all Village strallers.

The idea is to put the Old West back into the West and folks hereabouts are asked to pitch in by wearing big brim hats, western shirts and boots.

To perpetuate the tradition of the West and preserve the community's western atmosphere, Mayor Bogert last week issued a proclamation that makes every Saturday here "Go Western Day."

TEST PILOT

to bail out of a plane that carries a $20 million price tag, the hopes of the designers, and your own personal pride.

TROUBLE IS, MUSED the grey-fing "birdman," most pilots nowadays can't leave their planes even if they want to—not and stay in one piece.

Levier, who has piloted aircraft ever since he swapped a mechanics wrench for a flight log back in 1938, is very keen on plans for pilot preservation.

"We need more emphasis on emergency escape devices for jet pilots," Levier declared, pointing out that aviation has barely passed the parachute stage in pilot safety.

LEVIER, WHO says he ranks as chief Lockheed test pilot because "all the rest of the boys were killed," noted that even an ejection seat has its drawbacks. "The seat ejects you out of the plane all right, but no one's figured out how to get you away from the seat," he mused.

He also pointed out that a pilot flipping out of a plane traveling at 700 miles an hour is still moving at the same speed as the aircraft when he hits the air.

WIND FORCE, combined with the gyrations of the ejected seat, add up to some very high odds against the pilot's chances for survival.

"Airplanes are still our first striking force," Levier remarked, "and the pilots who man them should be considered with the same emphasis we place on aircraft development."

ELDORADO COUNTRY CLUB, nestled in a cove just east of Palm Desert, this week is announcing the completion of plans and the start of construction of its $1,000,000 clubhouse. The building, which will contain 35,000 square feet, will be of contemporary architecture with pre-cast pillars playing an important part in the design. The course is built on a total of 811 acres, of which 150 acres are in seedless grapes, 75 in grapefruit, and the course takes up 125 acres. The course has a total of seven lakes, holding a total of 500,000 gallons of water being pumped from six wells. These facilities are in addition to 29 privately owned cottages available for rental, and 362 home sites bordering on the fairways. (Aerial Photo by Gayle Studio)

A new lake will be seen from the glassed-in area overlooking the fairway to the west of the building. This same lake runs under the building and can be seen from inside the concourse.

In the locker rooms, a comparatively new development will be used which was tested at the McCulloch Corporation building in Los Angeles. An air circulating system will pull air through the lockers and out of the buildings and the air in the locker rooms will always be kept fresh.

The general offices of the club will be housed off of a hallway running east of the main entrance and against the front of the building.

SERVICE FROM the kitchen will also be available to the club cottages and fairway site homes, and people who drive carts to the clubhouse from a cottage or home will have an entrance to the concourse from the east.

At no time will carts be allowed on the fairways or lawn in front of the clubhouse, and there are

St. Nick 'Pagan'

Minister Lashes Santa as 'Goblin'

COPENHAGEN, Denmark — (UPI) — A Copenhagen Clergyman who called Santa Claus a "pagan goblin" has stirred a storm of protest throughout Santa-loving Denmark.

The furor, caused by the Rev. Paul Nedergaard's remark, has not been equalled here since the day 10 years ago when Canada's Dr. Brock Chisholm broke the news to Denmark that there is no Santa Claus.

NEDERGAARD'S WRATH was aroused by the appearance of a picture of St. Nick on Christmas seals which are being sold by a Danish children's welfare organization.

"These seals bear a symbol of a pagan goblin," he said. "You should refuse to buy them. Find some other way to aid the welfare organization."

The outburst of protest that resulted inspired a strongly-critical editorial in the Copenhagen newspaper.

"MAYBE SANTA CLAUS is a pagan goblin, but the Christmas tree and mistletoe are not mentioned in the Bible, and yet they have been depicted on the stamps," the editorial said. "Who says their motif has to be religious? The purpose is to collect money for children's welfare. We don't believe a goblin will hurt the sale of Christmas seals—but a clergyman can harm the good cause."

NO ONE APPEARED to be paying much attention to Nedergaard's call for a boycott of the seals. Business was reported brisk.

Canyon Hike Due Saturday

A Saturday hike to Pushawalla Canyon in the Phantom Hills is the highlight of this week's activities at the Desert Museum.

The trek will start, weather permitting, at 10 a.m. The hike is approximately four miles and hikers are advised to bring lunch and water.

Also included in the week's activities at the Museum are a talk at 8 p.m., Friday, by Joshua Tree National Monument Ranger Bruce Black on Glacier Bay and Sitka National Monument. Another talk, at 8 p.m., Saturday, will feature lecturer, discussing Utah's back Nell Murbarger, authoress and country.

Long And Complicated Ballot Keeps Many Away From Polls

Now that the last state-wide election is sufficiently a matter of history to be looked at objectively, we are impelled to remark once more on the interminable length and confusing wording of propositions on the ballot.

Although voting was heavier than usual, well over a million Californians "stayed away" from the polls.

That many of these non-voters were dissuaded from going to the polls by the length and complexity of the bed sheet sized ballots received in the mails has been a common post-election admission.

Especially was this true in metropolitan areas such as Los Angeles where in addition to the 18 State propositions, the City and County had as many more local proposals included for decisions of the voters.

This meant that the voter, in considering the full slate of candidates, issues and proposals, had fifty or more serious decisions to make, some extremely difficult to decide on a basis of the legal verbiage employed, negative manner of presentation and possible misconstruction of meaning.

Most voters are extremely conscientious in every instance in stamping their ballot and would rather skip voting entirely than to risk casting a vote by mistake against their own deep set convictions.

The really remarkable thing about the latest election is that five million people did go to the polls and vote on most of the propositions, in spite of the length and reading between the lines necessary to make intelligent decisions.

There is no question that many more voters would go to the polls if the ballots were shortened and clarified.

A simple statement in layman's language of propositions, and elimination of minor matters entirely, is mandatory if the ballot is to be made short and simple to cast.

It is plain that a much more "streamlined" ballot is the first essential to induce more voters to go to the polls on election day.

Whodunit in Arizona

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In Arizona, the Senate race is over, but the dust and/or the mud continue to fly.

Senator Barry Goldwater pinned defeat upon his rival, Governor Ernest McFarland, and now each is trying to pin the other's party with a who-struck-who indictment.

To be more exact, and to make everything more complicated, Goldwater and McFarland are both out to maintain their own reputations as honest and intelligent men. The main purpose in this strange game of post-election finger-pointing appears to be exoneration. To the question of whodunit, both Goldwater and McFarland desire to answer with a proof positive "Not I."

AND NO WONDER, considering the stupidity of the act in question. On Thursday, Oct. 30, citizens of Yuma found their parked automobiles coyly papered with a crude throw-away sheet. It featured a winking picture of the late Joe Stalin and a caption:

"Why not vote for Goldwater?" The law requires that all political advertisements give the name of the sponsor. This sheet mentioned not, but beneath the picture ran this: "Goldwater fully endorsed by Fulliamism and lauded by Mine-Mill-Smelter Union which was expelled from organized labor for Communist domination. Politics make strange bedfellows!"

LATER THAT DAY, or the next, the same leaflet showed up in automobiles parked in downtown Phoenix. By that time, however, the fat was sizzling in the fiery wrath of both Democrats and Republicans. Senator Carl Hayden (D) had called the screed to the attention of his hard-pressed candidate, Gov. McFarland, who reportedly threw up his hands and shouted: "This is all I need!"

Senator Hayden then phoned their Republican rival, Sen. Goldwater, who is said to have hit the ceiling in a blast of anger. Neither principal saw any advantage for himself in the pamphlet. Both saw the danger of a last-moment backfire.

MEANWHILE, AS IN the wonderful tales of mythology, the gods commenced to pour down from Olympus to fight on the side of their favorites. Senator Green (D.R.I.), chairman of the Senate subcommittee on elections and privileges, dispatched and investigator (D) from Washington in the person of Jim Duffy chief subcommittee counsel.

While Duffy was buying his airline ticket to Phoenix, he was apparently shadowed by an operative (R) who reported the purchase. Duffy was soon confronted by the minority subcommittee counsel, Verne Johnson (R) who inquired if his colleague was going to Phoenix, and received an answer in the negative. This was a bad tactical error, if nothing else, on Duffy's part. Subcommittee rules require that the minority be informed when the majority undertakes an investigation.

INVESTIGATOR DUFFY arrived in Phoenix on Saturday morning and made a whirlwind inspection. By noon of Monday, which was Election Day, Duffy told the press and radio representatives in effect that McFarland was innocent of distributing the smear sheets but that evidence pointed to Goldwater's having done so.

Duffy then checked out of his Phoenix hotel and holed up in a swank resort called Valley Ho, in Scottsdale, where the Governor's office had made him a reservation. Two other operatives (R) discovered Duffy's whereabouts in the early hours of election day morning. Just before sunrise poor Duffy was routed from bed (so the story goes) by a message from Senator Carl Curtis (R, Neb.), a very angry member of the Elections Privileges subcommittee. Curtis fired off a telegram to Duffy, as follows:

"DUE TO THE FACT that you have issued a statement which has been challenged by a United States Senator you are hereby instructed to remain until the arrival of election committee minority counsel, Mr. Verne Johnson, and this difficulty is straightened out."

This installment of the serio-comic serial ends fittingly with the arrival of the FBI. With charges that a Federal law has been violated the Justice Department has instigated a probe. Whatever else happens, Republican Senators Goldwater and Curtis will have their innings in a Senate investigation.

Back in 1950 when the Democrats began to lose elections, the welkin was wrung with cries of outrage and holier-than-thou lamentations. But it is doubtful if the Republicans can match that performance. The Democrats were pinning horns and cloven hooves on the Republican image. In any case, the worst that can happen is that somebody will be crowned with a dunce cap. It was the stupidest performance of the campaign. . . . Holmes Alexander

Don't let our float float away. OH, YES, I almost forgot. That story of the party line which eluded me yesterday because I ran out of space.

A mere man was trying to get on a party line on which two women were talking. One was describing a new way of preparing beans.

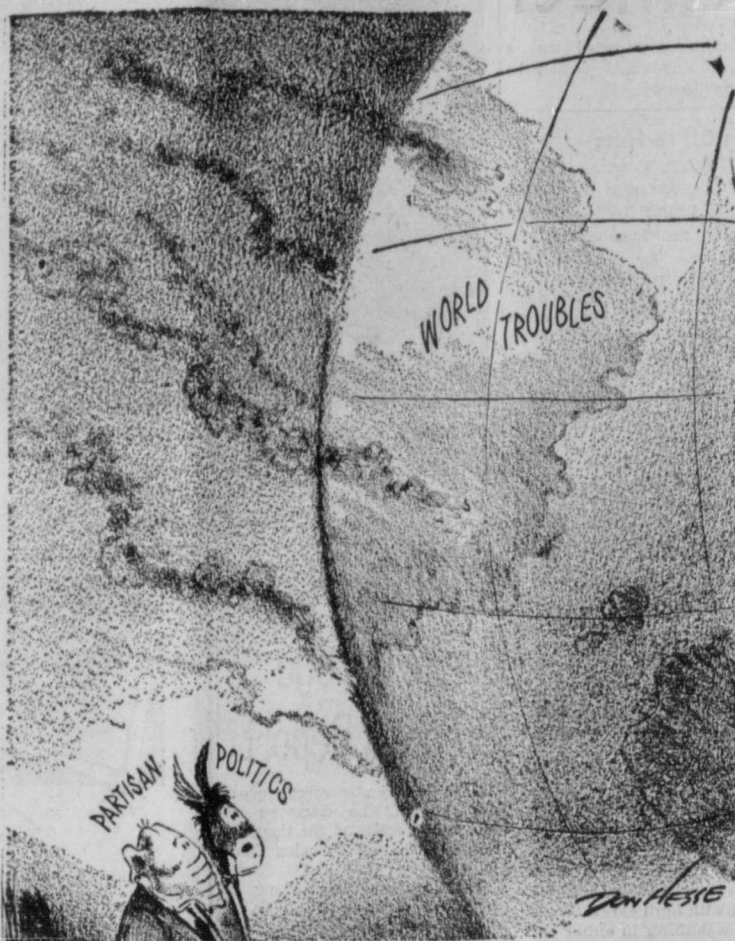

Our hero kept trying for 20 minutes to get the line.

Finally in exasperation, he took down the receiver for the 20th time and shouted:

"Madam, your beans are burning."

There was a gasp and a click—and he made his call.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

You can't start too early, so let me be the first to tell you: Prepare for National Cage Bird Week. (Starts Monday).

Have received no answer as yet to my telegram to the sponsors, Bird Clubs, Fond du Lac, Wis.

"Please advise how to celebrate. Have no National Cage Bird."

That is what I wired them. I imagine they are thinking THAT one over. Meantime, we will do the best we can.

THE PURPOSE of National Cage Bird Week is this: "To increase the interest in cage birds, their well-being, popularity and benefits derived from having them."

You are speaking to no amateur, believe me. At one time I was the owner of a National Cage Bird. This bird was an Australian budgie. His name was Jackie Howe, after a famous Aussie sheep shearer.

MATTER OF FACT, in Australia they call an undershirt a "Jackie Howe"

Runs Through the Street In His Jackie Howe That was a headline in the Sydney paper one day about a runner who passed through, bearing the sacred flame to the Olympics at Melbourne.

IT WAS MY IDEA that such a name would increase the bird's language. It would bring his name up often. Like you holler on cold mornings at your child: "Don't run around stark staring. Put on your Jackie Howe."

The budgie would hear his name. And immediately set up an answer. "Jackie howe?" "Jackie Howe." And so on.

LET ME TELL you this particular budgie should have been called Silent Sam.

I consulted pet store people. I read books on budgies. I even wrote about this bird. And people called me to tell me how well THEIR budgie talked.

(One lady even wanted to put her budgie on the phone to mine).

MY BUDGIE SWUNG on the most expensive toys. He sharpened his beak on high-priced cutlery. And his water cup was kept filled with imported champagne.

"What do you think of Pony Boy in the fifth?" I would ask him. (Aussies are WILD about horse racing.)

He only looked at me with a beady eye. Not a single, solitary, ruddy word.

I DO NOT MEAN that no noise came out of the budgie. He was the noisiest bird I ever heard. Especially early in the morning. When you were trying to sleep.

He was up with the uncaged birds in the morning.

"EEEEK! SCREECH! WAK! WAK! EEEEEK!"

Looking back on the purpose of National Cage Bird Week, I think he fulfilled them well. He created interest — it is pretty hard to be uninterested with all that noise going on. Even when you pull a pillow over your head.

WE WERE ALL interested in his well-being.

He was very popular. The cat used to stand and look at him by the hour. With the drool running down his chops.

The benefits derived from him were beyond number. He kept the dog in such a state of nerves I thought I would have to lace his hamburger with Miltovins.

I THINK WE ALL benefitted by this bird. I cannot remember any time of my life when I was up so early.

The bird did not talk. But my child talked to him. Endlessly. I think it improved HER vocabulary. He was a good listener. I will say that for him.

WE WOULD HAVE him yet. But one day my daughter was taking him on a little cage walk. And there is no use coming up a nice, wide driveway when you can climb a sheer cliff.

On the way up, she lost her footing. The cage rolled down and busted wide open. And the budgie took it on the Arthur Duffy.

Didn't even yell. "Good-by." A ruddy no-hoper.

EARL WILSON:

Is All Rosy at the Roses?

New York—Billy Rose's wife, Joyce Mathews, was very chipper on the phone in New Orleans as she shrieked a denial that she had "gone to Mexico" to get herself a divorce for Thanksgiving.

"Everything's perfectly fine — Billy took me to the airport and he's coming here for Thanksgiving," Joyce said.

"I was run down and needed a vacation," added the mistress of the Rose town house. "But when I told my friends I was going to Mexico, they said, 'YOU'RE going to MEXICO? WELL!' I knew what they were thinking. So I brought my daughter Vicki down here instead."

"The report ruined my vacation but I'm having a good time," concluded Joyce, the former Mrs. Milton Berle. Billy, at the town house here, said: "Joyce was going to Mexico but she found out it was cold."

Ernie Kovacs told me that besides signing a Columbia Pictures one-picture-a-year deal and arranging to go on Monitor radio, he and Edith Adams are "going to San Francisco to have dinner."

Feeling hungry (there are so few restaurants in N.Y.), he said, "We'll stay about five days. Counting lunches, we can have 10 delicious non-home cooked meals."

The brave and brassy brassiere bandit who filched the falsies of the girls in "Goldilocks" (the Don Ameche Elaine Strich show) suddenly returned them. Chorine Suzanne Stahl (of Pittsburgh) contends they were superfluous, anyway. . . I told the B.W. that Bess Myerson gets prettier every year and to my amazement, she agreed with me.

Errol Flynn — usually laughing — looked grave. Tyrone Power had been about his closest friend. "They usually say when a man dies, 'His time has come,' but I don't think Ty's time has come yet," he said grimly at 21.

Veteran B-way Talent Scout Joe Pincus discovered Power in '35 when he had a bit part in a Katherine Cornell "Romeo and Juliet," got him $400-a-week at 20th, and Darryl Zanuck gave him a lead in "Lloyd's of London." Was he a success? Why, his alimony to Annabella and Linda Christian was said to have totaled $3,000 a week! Power regularly visited Pincus to thank him. "He was a plain, nice guy who never got big-headed and never thought he was important," said Pincus — who also sent Don Ameche to Hollywood.

"Humor," said Harry Hersfield, trying to define it at the Earl's Pearls: Wouldn't it be wonderful if we had 1958 wages, 1932 prices and 1910 taxes? Wish I'd Said That: You know you're getting old when you start complaining about all the foolish things you did when you were middle-aged.

Today's Best Laugh: There's a guy so nervous he has to take a tranquilizer to steady his hand enough so he can open a bottle of sleeping pills.

Taffy Tuttle complains that TV commercials aren't long enough: "I can never get from the set to the refrigerator and back to the set in time." That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Simmons Turns 'Tarzan' Down

HOLLYWOOD — Jayne Mansfield bought her bassinet with seven books of green stamps. Olympic decathlon champ Floyd Simmons turned down producer Sy Weintraub's bid to star in 13 Tarzan telefilms and two feature-length movies about the apeman because the salary is a mere $350 a week and the contract doesn't provide an owner percentage, residuals or merchandising rights for the star — same omissions that caused Clint Walker to kick up his heels over the Cheyenne series.

MARILYN MONROE's many layoffs during the shooting of "Some Like It Hot" added another $400,000 to the cost of the picture. . . . Taina Elg and producer Sam ("River Kwai") Spiegel are a hot item since she busted up with her husband, Carl Bjorkenheim, and Sam busted up with his Betty.

Ava Gardner is interested in doing Arthur Lyon's tres-sexy new film treatment of "Lysistrata" . . . Talent scout Ben Bard found 19-year-old Danielle DeMetz in New Orleans a year ago, when she was 18; and submitted her to Fox for the femme lead in "A Certain Smile." She tested for the part but Christine Carere got it. Now Fox has called her back (and also paid the freight of her new husband) to test for a term contract. Why? "Because," says Ben, "she has butterfly hips!"

Tab Hunter's definition of a gold digger: A human gimme pig.

TONY CURTIS, long in love with the Biblical character of David, will get a chance to sling that stone at Goliath in "The Stone" on G. E. Theater's Easter offering. . . . Debbie Reynolds will sing "You Gotta Have Me to Go with You" at tomorrow's (Nov. 22) WAIF Ball honoring Queen Frederika and Princess Sophia of Greece. To whom is she dedicating it? Debbie ain't saying.

Debbie just finished shooting "The Mating Game" at MGM and gave her supporting cast gag gifts, all picked by Debbie herself on a personal shopping spree: a case of warm beer and a Bible inscribed "Practice What You Preach," for Paul Douglas; two sequin-studded screwdrivers for Tony Randall, whose favorite drink is a Screwdriver; and a jewel for Una Merkel's navel with a card reading "For your striptease number, dear Una."

RED SKELTON says he's gonna have to give up his newspaper route if this keeps up: He's finishing up his daily grind in his vaudeville show at the Ritz Theatre, from which he doubled into his own weekly shows and a Milton Berle taping, and opens for a month at the Riviera in Las Vegas, from where he'll also be doubling into his own shows again, betimes taping ANOTHER spec, for Westinghouse!

Lucille Ball interviewed 800 aspirants for her little theatre group, the Desilu Workshop, but signed only three: two actors, Dick Kallman and Paul Kent, and a director, Hal Gerson. . . . Jim (Guns Smoke) Arness will make a feature movie based on Bert Kennedy's script, "The Whip."

PD Citizens Map Campaign to End Highway Litter

PALM DESERT — The area extending from Thunderbird to Indian Wells may well be rid of many a familiar landmark by this time next week.

Chamber officials of Palm Desert and Rancho Mirage, today launched a highway clean-up drive to rid the highway, side streets and vacant lots of the area, of refuse of beer cans, paper bags, tumbleweeds and other general debris.

United under the slogan "If we can lift it, we'll take it," Boy Scouts, Jaycees, Rotarians, Realty Board members and other civic groups have called a day-long, pick-up drive for Saturday, Nov. 29, starting out at 8 a.m. from the Palm Desert Bank of America.

Area residents are urged this week to clean up in front of their places of business or on vacant lots adjacent to their homes and the bundles will be hauled away next Saturday.

PD Firemen Net Funds in Drive

PALM DESERT — Area residents of the Palm Desert Volunteer Fire Department, who last week launched a fund-raising drive for emergency first-aid equipment, report the response from Palm Desert residents has been highly satisfactory.

The drive is being extended throughout the Rancho Mirage and Indian Wells area.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mauldin spent several days last week with Steve and Agnes Chase. A small dinner party was given in their honor by the Chases on Wednesday "Chuck Wagon" night at Shadow Mountain Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen of Spokane arrived here a few days ago and have opened their home on Ironwood Street for the season. Mrs. Harlan Peyton drove down with the Jensens and will be their houseguest for several weeks, while she is furnishing her new home here.

A fine exhibit of water-color art was shown at Firecliff Lodge the latter part of the week. The artist, Charlie Neiner, is rated outstanding in his field of art. He and his wife will be living here in Palm Desert for six months.

The Sunday Brunch at Shadow Mountain Club was well attended. Harold and Jo Smith were there with their guests for the day, Mrs. William Kostecky and her daughter, Linda, and Mrs. R. I. Farrar and her daughter, same name, Linda. Mrs. Olin Garrison also was entertaining, Miss May Walter of New York who is spending some time with her. Dr. Garrison will join the two ladies next week and stay over for Thanksgiving.

Others seen here and there were Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Cockerill, the doctor's brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cockerill, and Mrs. Henry Baker. The Walter Markleys were entertaining Bob and May Hanson, Betty and Clarence Beck and Mrs. John Schwefler, Henry and Kitty LaFogues, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sumpter and guests, Mary and Ralph Caplinger with Mr. and Mrs. George Earnest (George is Mary's son), Edna Value, Frances Hodgeman, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris with guests from Wichita, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hogerson, the Robert Reids with Dorothy and Ralph Dietz and many more.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blenkhorn entertained Mr. and Mrs. John G. Zuricker of Santa Monica over the weekend. Mr. Zuricker is general sales manager for the credit firm owned by Mr. Blenkhorn, with offices in Santa Monica, Torrance and Hermosa Beach, and has been with this company for more than 27 years.

Pan-Hellenic held its monthly meeting at Desert Air. Luncheon was served out around the pool to some 50 members and their friends. Mrs. J. N. Blatt president, presided over the business meeting. Plans for their annual scholarship tea in January were made, with this affair to be held in the Carter home in Bermuda Dunes. The hostesses of the day were Mrs. Robert Ellsworth of Thermal and Mrs. H. S. Winkler of Rancho Mirage.

Holding Annual Rummage Sale

The women of St. Louis Guild in Cathedral City will hold their Tenth Annual Rummage Sale in the hall on B Street at Glenn, starting Wednesday, December 3, and continuing through Saturday, December 6. Doors will be open each day from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m.

This annual sale is eagerly looked forward to by people of the Valley. Although the women have been gathering articles for the past year, anyone having odds and ends that they wish to dispose of, is invited to give them to the sale. Bring them to the church parking lot or phone FA 8-2398 and they will be picked up.

Brighten dull aluminum utensils and stuff with slivered ter, adding sliced lemon and bringing the water to a boil. Add a bit of cream of tartar to remove a dark film.

HAPPY HACKERS was the satirical billing for this hysterical singing group that stopped the show at Thunderbird's annual chuckwagon for the women golfers. In the line, Georgia Poston, Kay Ober-

Happy Hackers Stop Show

Women golfers here for the Women's Membership Golf Roundup at Thunderbird were entertained Wednesday night in traditional fashion at a chuckwagon dinner followed by the "Spectacular" that is a hilarious vaudeville-type show, strictly home-made.

Preceding dinner golfers gathered in the Club lounge for the awarding of prizes.

As usual, the chuckwagon was set up in the main diningroom and the crowd ate at tables in the diningroom, lounge and pavilion, with the dance floor and stage in the pavilion. Many of the committee in charge and Thunderbird members wore western garb for the affair. Dancing was to the music of Pat Barbara's orchestra.

The show, a Helen Kenaston production, opened with Helen at the piano and Barbara Hinkle at the organ, playing favorite melodies for community singing. The two women were dressed alike for their Cherry Sisters act that is a running gag at Thunderbird. They looked very pretty in their long curling eyelashes and glittering costumes, and were presented by Ruth Manseau.

June Clarke in abbreviated western clothes of pale blue and white, carried the name cards out on the stage for each act. That first one in the old-fashioned lingerie garb was Georgina Poston, and she was followed by torchy singer June De Feo. Irene Hines, in blackface, did her pantomime of the Phil Harris classic, and the Lunatics' Lament, with the actors wearing bright-colored yarn wigs, and white orderly jackets over black leotards, was pretty funny.

Hit of the show as the Happy Hackers group, gleefully attired in long red hose, four-star feed sack dresses, and with headache bands in their bouffant - dressed hair. These merry ones were Georgina Poston, Kay Oberfel, Dottie Buckingham, Joyce Singer, Margaret Manasse and Ella Dyer, and it was Joyce Singer swinging the rubber-handled golf stick.

Ruby and Bobbie Meyers, mother and daughter act singing to their own guitar accompaniment were brought back by earnest applause. These two are always favorites on Thunderbird shows.

Toastmasters, Toastmistress Meet Jointly

Toastmistress - Toastmasters held a dinner meeting, Tuesday evening in the teachers dining room at the Palm Springs High School.

Gertrude Anderson, president of the Toastmistress group presided. Table topics were conducted by Brad Davis, on topics selected from the National Toastmistress Topic list.

Inspiration and flag salute was given by Josephine Moon. Toastmistress for the evening Betty Luce introduced Suzanne Hubbard who spoke on "Is Not True Leisure, One With True Toil?" Paul Smith, "Humorous Incidents of a Palm Springs Policeman," and Warner Moon, "Highlights at Edinburgh, Scotland," taken from his personal experiences in that country. Timer was Betty Mitchell, lexicologist, Nancy Tuttle, evaluator, W. S. Mentzer, closing thought, Martha Roach.

A colorful horn of plenty decorated the table center. Dinner consisted of turkey pie, molded fruit salad, lemon tarts and coffee.

Those present were Gertrude Anderson, Suzanne Hubbard, Margaret Johnson, Elizabeth Luce, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Moon, Dorothy Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard G. Roach, Nancy Tuttle, Mary Rose, Nancy King, Beverly Midstokke, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mentzer, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Smith, Dixie Janis, Mary McGraw, Patricia Rogers, Brad Davis.

Make fabric flame-proof with a mixture of 7 ounces Borax, 3 ounces boric acid and 2 quarts water. Soak the clothes or material and let dry. The fabric can be ironed safely. A good idea for children's play costumes.

Doll Theme for Birthday Party Inspires Contest

Following the "Doll" theme the highlight of Heidi Wahlberg's fifth birthday party today was a contest to select the prettiest doll, from among those brought by the little guests. Unanimous choice of the children themselves was Janet Rosenthal's doll Ginger.

Pink and white were the predominate colors at the party which was held at the Wahlberg home on Paseo de Anza. The birthday cake featured a real doll centering pink roses on a white cake.

Winners of a song contest were Edward Allen for the quietest song; Beth Ann Land, prettiest song; and Bobby Mello, the loudest song.

Among the other guests enjoying a lunch of hot dogs, root beer, ice cream and cake were: Sherry Crowell, Tina Schilling, Elizabeth Victor and the birthday girls sisters, Holly and Karen Wahlberg.

St. Paul's Guild Meets Tuesday

The Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. Steere, 1625 El Alameda on Tuesday, November 25, at 12:30 p.m.

Those attending are asked to bring their own sandwiches. Coffee and dessert will be served by the hostesses, Mrs. Steere, Mrs. Francis Crocker and Mrs. Milton Friendly.

All friends interested in the church are cordially invited to attend Guild meetings.

The day after Thanksgiving the beautiful Venetian Room at the Tennis Club . . . will be the perfect setting for an exhibit of those fabulous 24-carat gold statuettes . . . the work of the Renaissance-inspired Italian sculptor Renato Signorini . . . The exhibit equals in importance previous Palm Springs displays of millions of dollars worth of jewels and furs . . . for the little gold statuette of Queen Elizabeth alone is valued at $100,000 . . . The Friday showing will be invitational . . . but Tennis Club members will be privileged to view the exhibit on Saturday afternoon and evening . . . It has been shown at Tifanys in New York and in Los Angeles for the Junior League . . . After its Palm Springs showing it will be shipped back to Rome . . .

Edith Carlson's unfortunate accident . . . that caused her a broken hip and plenty of grief . . . has had one happy result as it's bringing Edith's daughter Connie (Mrs. Doc) Erickson to Palm Springs for the winter . . . Connie has taken an apartment at 1905 McCallum Way . . . and will move her mother there from the hospital this weekend . . . Doc, of course, has to be in Hollywood . . . helping Alfred Hitchcock keep store . . . but will be down here for the weekends . . .

A weekend guest of the Vernon Bartons (he's the new Playhouse manager) is Leo G. Carroll . . . and if you see him around town you are sure to think you know him . . . for you must have seen him as "Topper" on television. The noted character actor . . . who is currently working on a Hitchcock feature that's in production at MGM . . . will be seen here this winter at the Playhouse . . . about the second or third show . . . He will probably star in "The Holly and the Ivy" or "Home at Seven" . . . The play isn't set yet . . . but he will definitely be making a personal appearance at the Playhouse . . .

Dolores and Hugo Steinmeyer will be eating their Thanksgiving dinner in Palm Springs with friends . . . They check in at El Mirador on the 26th and will spend the weekend here . . .

Palm Springs friends this week received invitations . . . to a black tie dinner which the Tom Flemings will be hosting in Cottillion Room at El Cortez Hotel in San Diego on December 29th . . . This is their annual holiday party and marks another anniversary.

'Carmen' Will Open New Riverside Opera Season

Tickets for "Carmen," which will open the 1958-59 season for Riverside Opera Association on November 21 at Ramona High School auditorium, are now on sale.

Mission Inn Cigar Stand, Rouse's and the custom service section at Harris' are handling admissions.

Season ticket holders will be admitted automatically to the reserved section. Single reserved section tickets are priced at $2.50. General admission is $2. Student tickets are 75 cents.

Robert La Marchina will conduct "Carmen." His production staff includes Ernest Hubbert, chorus conductor; Charles Peck stage director; Lucille Hubbert, Dorothy Robinson and Alberta Coon, accompanist; Bruce Tomlinson, orchestra manager; Mrs. John Ivanoff, costume chairman, and Mrs. Ira C. Landis, production chairman.

Leading roles in the company will be sung by outstanding young West Coast singers.

Margery Mackay will be heard as Carmen. This young mezzo-soprano has been praised by critics for her "richly textured voice, her musicianship and her dramatic concepts." Christian Science Monitor hailed her "vital personality . . . voice and acting ability" after her appearance in Boston with the New York City Opera as Suzuki in "Madame Butterfly."

A graduate of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and the music department of the University of Southern California, Chris MARGERY MACKAY will appear as Carmen in the opening production of the Riverside Opera Association to be staged tonight in the Ramona High School Auditorium.

Lachome will sing Don Jose. He sang for two seasons with the San Francisco Opera Company and has been heard in Redlands Bowl and with the Sacramento and Orange County Symphonies. He sang the tenor lead in "The Saint of Bleeker Street" at its West Coast premier at USC.

Lloyd Thomas Hanna, who will sing Escamillo, recently scored at the International Music Festival in Venice and the Milan World's Fair. He sang in opera and concert throughout Italy. He was a featured soloist for "Venezian Night" in Hollywood Bowl and appeared in "Cinderella" at the Los Angeles Shrine Auditorium. He also was featured with Meredith Wilson's "California Story" in San Diego.

Pat Jennings, Micaela for the Riverside production of "Carmen," is an artist student of Mme. Lotte Lehman. She won high praise for her role in the Santa Barbara production of "Rosenkavalier" and has been soloist with the Denver Symphony. She appeared in "Brigadoon" and "Amahl and the Night Visitors" and Los Angeles Civic Light Opera productions.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

The Desert Sun Friday, Nov. 21, 1958 8

DEAR ABBY: I married the oldest son in a family of twelve children. They are good honest people, but some of their ways are hard for me to take. When we visit them in the country my mother-in-law blows a whistle to call everybody to the table. You'd think she was calling hogs! She runs her house like an Army post: breakfast at 8:00, lunch at 12:00 and supper at 6:00 p.m. anybody is late including my husband, who is 26, he can't eat until everybody is finished and he has to eat it cold, all by himself. Don't you think the old lady is a little tetchy?

SUE

DEAR SUE: The "old lady" is far from tetchy. I'll wager she never has a problem with children who "aren't hungry now" and straggle in to eat at odd hours. She's dumb like a fox. Hooray for her.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of five children who served their mother breakfast at 7:30 Saturday morning because her birthday is on the following Tuesday and they will be in school? They had no money for presents because they have no father. When I came downstairs they had the dishes all done and had cooked their own breakfast, too. As I sit here writing to you, they brought me a cup of tea. This is the most wonderful birthday I have ever had. I just had to tell someone how happy I am. I am so proud I could bust.

MARY

DEAR MARY: Only children who have been treated with love and respect could honor their mother the way yours have. The love you have given them is coming back to you. God bless you!

DEAR ABBY: Every night between 5:00 and 5:30 p.m., I pick up my wife with my car as she comes into the car I always kiss her. Several times when we arrive home she says, "You didn't kiss me tonight!" I know that I DID kiss her but she forgot. This has been the reason for many fights between us. Can you give me some advice?

JAKE

DEAR JAKE: When you get her home, give her a kiss she won't forget!

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to you in hopes that you will not only give me advice but will print my letter to warn others not to make the same foolish mistake. I loaned $500 to a good friend of mine. I was ashamed to ask him for an "IOU." I did not ask him interest, either. After two years, all I have collected is $50. When I asked my friend for the balance he actually looked me square in the eye and said that HE NEVER BORROWED ANY MORE THAN FIFTY DOLLARS FROM ME! Please, Abby, don't tell me to chalk it up to experience and forget about it, because I cannot afford to forget about $450 in cash. It was my life's savings and I worked hard for that money. What shall I do?

TAKEN FOR A RIDE

DEAR TAKEN: (And you certainly were!) It will be difficult to collect any money if you have no written proof that you loaned it. Get a lawyer.

DEAR ABBY: I have been living in the neighborhood of a peculiar - acting woman for six years. Our friendship has been an on-again-on-again affair. Some times she is very friendly with me and then again she will tell me off and not speak to me for a month. Right now she is having one of her mad spells. Our children play together. I want to know if my boys should invite her children to his birthday party?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Let your child invite whomever he wants. Your relationship with the parents should not enter into it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MIKE": Distance lends enchantment. Get lost!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookdealer to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

Egg-Vending Machines

RIPLEY, N. Y. — (UPI) — A new method of merchandising eggs by using roadside vending machines has proved a boon to western New York poultrymen.

Farmer John N. Wolf said the vending machines cut down on interruptions in routine farm duties and make it possible to sell eggs at night or when the farmer and his family aren't home.

Each machine holds 100 dozen eggs of two sizes, medium and large. Quarters, dimes and nickels are used to operate it. The device has a refrigerator unit to prevent spoilage in the summer and is electrically heated in the winter to guard against breakage.

The Pentagon estimates that contracts for research and development work during the current fiscal year will come to about 5.8 billion dollars.

A FAUCET FOR THE DESERT is this new, single-handle model designed and manufactured by Moen Faucet Co. Because it regulates heat instantaneously and also enables control of force flow—in a single movement—it yields great savings in water. Popular in kitchens and service porches, the Moen firm has also created a model expressly for shower use. In Palm Springs, the Moen faucet is available at Oasis Plumbing, Inc., at 66-238 Highway 111.

Gardening in the Desert

Mr. Amateur Gardener, even if the 29 or 30 degree temperature played havoc with your efforts stick to the old alibi, unusual weather. Granted the cold streak hit us much earlier this year there is little we can do about it gardenwise.

The sight of a blackened, sagging castorbean tree would be enough to make you take a look at your bougainvillea and hibiscus or any other sub-tropical plant you may have carefully planted. If your bougainvillea has suffered it won't be nice to look at but leave it alone.

LATER, WHEN THE cold has subsided and tiny leaves appear, don't be hasty. When you are satisfied that the frozen parts are really dead use the new leaves as a guide to cutting back the tree.

Generally this plant has excellent recuperative powers. In a few months it will be back to its pre-frost appearance. Avoid over-irrigating. An occasional feeding of blood meal will help bring out a profusion of flowers.

ON THE CONTRARY, if you have a hibiscus that has suffered from the frost cut it back immediately. If you don't the entire plant is liable to die.

Within the city limits we doubt that any citrus trees, up to the present time, have suffered to any extent from the frost. If they do, we must remember the City Fathers are averse to the use of smudge pots and the like. Besides, your neighbors would not appreciate the smoke.

WE DON'T ADVOCATE the idea of sprinkling the plants when you fear possible plant damage. Sprinkling, if the weather is really cold, only serves to form an ice cover on the leaves and blooms which calls for extra work—covering them from the sun until they have thawed out slowly, and you still have the possibility of killing or damaging the plant.

If you have small plants of bougainvillea, lantana hibiscus or other tender plants it should be sufficient to cover them with big, cardboard boxes and maybe burlap or canvas. Generally a part of the tree directly under the eaves is not affected and a layer of steer manure would help keep the soil warm overnight. The amateur gardener will find all these setbacks a part of the game and become accustomed to them after a few years.

FERVENTLY HOPING for a spell of warm weather we would suggest a visit to your nursery to look over flats of annuals that eventually would add beauty to the new garden. We suggest annuals because we have learned that perennials are not very satisfactory for use in our desert.

Despite word to the contrary we have had excellent results with Geraniums and Pelargoniums on the desert. However, if you decide to use them be sure they are planted on the side of the house or fence facing directly north. Unless planted in deep shade they liable to wither and die under the damaging heat of the summer sun, hence our advice.

PANSIES, WITH THEIR large variety of colors, should be planted in warm spots. It is too late to consider seeds so buy flats at your local nursery if you want your pansy bed to be a success. You can help it along by preparing a bed compounded with peat moss, leaf mold, and blood meal.

Pansies are hardy if kept watered. They seem to do the best when blooms are not allowed to die on the stem. A flat bowl of floating pansies adds color to your living room. In early spring a pruning helps them along. T.G.M.

Top Trio Favored Saturday

NEW YORK (UPI) — Louisiana State, Auburn and Oklahoma are heavy favorites to extend their assorted streaks in Saturday's major college football games.

The oddsmakers made top-ranked LSU a 14-point favorite to defeat Tulane and end the season with a perfect record while third-ranked Auburn was an 18-point choice to run its unbeaten string to 23 games at the expense of Wake Forest.

Oklahoma, ranked fourth nationally, once again was the biggest favorite in this week's "line." The Sooners were picked to wallop Nebraska by at least 32 points and clinch their 12th straight undisputed Big Eight conference championship.

Four games were rated tossups, including the key Southwest Conference clash between Rice and eighth-ranked Texas Christian and the Ivy League showdown between Dartmouth and Princeton. The other "pick em" games are Kentucky vs. Tennessee and Northwestern vs. Illinois.

Sixth-ranked Iowa, the Big Ten champion, was listed as a six-point choice over Notre Dame in the nationally televised game-of-the-week.

The remaining members of the UPI top ten were picked to win by at least two touchdowns. Fifth-ranked Purdue was 15 over Indiana, and ninth-ranked Ohio State was 14 over Michigan.

No odds were being quoted on the game between the 10th-ranked Air Force Academy and New Mexico. Second-ranked Army will rest this week for its climactic meeting with Navy, Nov. 29.

Here are the point-spreads on other leading Saturday games:

INTERSECTIONAL: Clemson 7 over Boston College at Clemson, S.C.; Holy Cross 17 over Marquette at Worcester, Mass.

EAST: Syracuse 8 over West Virginia, Boston University 12 over Connecticut; Harvard 12 over Yale, Rutgers 18 over Columbia.

MIDWEST: Missouri 7 over Kansas; Michigan State 14 over Kansas State.

SOUTH: North Carolina 6 over Duke; Florida 7 over Florida State; Maryland 10 over Virginia; South Carolina 10 over North Carolina State.

SOUTHWEST: Arkansas 10 over Texas Tech; Southern Methodist 12 over Baylor; Arizona State 8 over Arizona.

ROCKIES: Brigham Young 6 over Wyoming; Colorado 15 over Colorado State.

PACIFIC COAST: California 12 over Stanford; Oregon State 6 over Oregon; Southern California 7 over UCLA; Washington State 8 over Washington.

Reseed Infield At Polo Grounds

Members of the Palm Springs Merchants baseball team will take it easy for the next three weeks with all practice sessions canceled during that time.

The reason? The baseball infield at the Polo Grounds is being reseeded.

Plans are in the hopper now for a Winter League with teams from Banning, Riverside, San Bernardino and other communities in the area joining with the local club.

Howard Haddock, city recreation superintendent, was on the hunt for a sponsor for the local team.

"The team plays the year around and besides the league games, meets many outstanding clubs from the Los Angeles area," he said. "If anyone is interested, I'd like to have them contact me at the city hall."

John Marinko will manage the team for the fourth straight year.

Fourth Session Of Tennis Clinics Slated Saturday

Fourth session of the current series of Tennis Clinics being offered young netters of the Palm Springs area will be held tomorrow starting at 9 a.m. and continuing until 11 a.m. on Tamarisk City Park courts.

Dave Gillam, tennis pro at the Racquet Club, is instructor at the weekly classes which are open to boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 14.

Gillam is being assisted by Seamus Nunan, High School tennis coach and other well known local tennis players.

The clinics are sponsored by The Desert Sun.

Eldorado to Host Men's Invitational this Weekend

Three-Day Play Under Way Today

Eldorado Country Club will host its first annual Men's Invitational golf tournament Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week with many prominent southland amateurs competing for prizes in low gross and low net classes.

Among the well-known players to compete in the event are Allan Jones, one-handicapper, Dr. Bud Taylor, holder of many golf trophies, Johnny Dawson, Frank Hixon, Paul Carter and several others.

Today's play will be for seniors, an 18-hole affair.

The tournament tomorrow and Sunday will be over a 36-hole medal play route, 18 holes each day. Play will start at 8:30 a.m. Friends of members are invited to play the sporty new course, one of the finest in the southland. Mike Portik is the pro at Eldorado.

Trojans, Bruins Clash Tomorrow For City Crown

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The prestige of the city championship is at stake Saturday when UCLA and Southern California clash for the 28th time in their annual cross-town football rivalry.

Although Southern California still has a slight chance of getting the Rose Bowl bid, the Trojans want to beat UCLA for the city supremacy.

California, Oregon State and Washington State all would have to lose for Southern Cal to have a clearcut chance at the Rose Bowl bid.

Although SC has won 15 games, lost eight and tied four in the competition with UCLA, its cross-town rival has won six of the last nine games under the tutelage of the late Henry (Red) Sanders.

The Trojans, with a 4-4 record against UCLA's 3-6, are favored by a touchdown.

The Trojans are suffering from a siege of quarterback injuries that left them only with Tom Maudlin as a seasoned signal-caller. The able Willie Wood is out for the season. Third-stringer Al Prukop also is sidelined for this year with a shoulder separation.

The city championship has built up interest in the game to the point where a crowd of more than 60,000 is expected in Memorial Coliseum.

Dawson Wins November Senior Tournament by 16

Cards 68 Last Day For 208

Johnny Dawson of Eldorado, playing his first year as a senior, wrapped it up Thursday at Thunderbird Country Club when he shot a 68 to give him a 54-hole total of 208 and the top prize in the annual November tournament of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association.

Dawson increased his lead on the final day and won going away with a 16-stroke margin over Gail Cave, defending champion who carded a 75 yesterday for a total of 224.

ARNOLD RUMWELL, of O'Donnell, who took a long lead Monday in the first day of play, made it hold up and won the low net honors with a 198.

Dawson and Rumwell played in Class D, the 55-59 age bracket. Cave was in Class C, 60-64 age class.

WINNERS IN OTHER CLASSES were K.W. Nushbaum, Class C low net; F. W. Robinson, Virginia CC, Class B gross; Jack Hall, Seattle and G. J. Waldvogel, Virginia CC, tied for Class B low net; Dr. C. L. SID SANDERS, Papoose back, roars through Perris in a long gainer in the Palm Springs Jayvee victory by a score of 19 to 6. Sanders scored two TDs in the win. (Desert Sun Photo by Chuck Grone)

Papooses Down Perris 19-6 in Season's Finale

Palm Springs High Junior Varsity closed the 1958 Riverside County League JV season with a win last night over Perris High on the home field, 19 to 6.

The Papooses drew first blood in the first quarter when Sid Sanders piled over from three yards out but after that both teams settled down to a midfield battle until the final quarter.

IN THAT PERIOD Sanders again plowed over from the 3 and when Ace Meyers booted the extra point it was 13-0 for the local Jayvees.

With four minutes left in the game, Benny Wheeler wheeled around right end to go all of the way. The PAT was missed. Perris avoided a shut-out when Roger Ashley went 65 yards for a TD as the game ended.

COACH BOB GILMORE singled out Clark Sloan, Bucky Osborne and Ace Meyers, as the outstanding boys up in the front line and Benny Wheeler, Marty Burke and Sid Sanders in the backfield. The score by quarters:

Perris 0 0 0 6 — 6
Palm Springs 6 0 0 13 — 19
P.S. Scoring — TD — Sanders (2) Wheeler; PAT — Meyer, Perris, TD — Ashley.

Ott's Condition is Slightly Improved

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Famous baseball slugger Mel Ott rallied slightly today in his grim fight to survive injuries from an automobile smash-up last week.

Physicians at Touro Infirmary here said the former New York Giant's chances for life were "slim but better."

BOOTS HOME FOUR

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jockey Bobby Ussery booted home four winners at Jamaica Thursday.

Nation's Top Netters In Racquet Club Event

Fifteen of the nation's top-ranked netters plus Palm Springs' own Frank Ripley, started swinging racquets today in the third annual Men's Invitational Singles Championships at the Racquet Club.

The tournament will conclude on Sunday with finals in the men's singles and in doubles.

In doubles play, members of the Racquet Club will be teamed with the stellar netters.

Top-seeded in the tournament is Herb Flam, defending champion and ranked high in the nation.

champion at 16 and two-out-of-staters, Mike Green of Miami Beach, Florida and Ed Sledge of Dallas, Texas.

Bassey Starts Work For Parra Battle

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Hogan Kid Bassey, world's featherweight champion from Nigeria and England, began training today for his bout with Ernesto Parra of Mexico in Los Angeles Dec. 13.

Humphries Scores Unanimous Decision

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Noel Humphreys, 129, Ingleswood, won a unanimous decision over Little Cezar, 130½, Philippine Islands, Thursday night in a 10-round main event at the Olympic Auditorium.

We Ask You to Compare These Bargains Before You Buy

$15,000—Owners have already purchased new home, must sell 3 bedrooms, carpets, drapes, range and refrigerator included. A chance to make a good buy. Terms.

$45,000—Nearly new, 3 bedrooms, 3 baths home located near El Mirador Hotel. Newly and expensively furnished by leading decorator. Heated and filtered pool. On the sunny side of the street—also guest house, with refrigerator. We ask you to look at this before you buy.

$54,500—Do you know a bargain when you see one? Located in popular south end, 2 bedrooms, den, 2 baths, maid's room and bath. Refrigerated cooling, heated and filtered pool, beautifully landscaped, fenced for privacy. Present owner has many thousands more than asking price in this home.

$75,000—Right in the heart of beautiful Las Palmas; business has kept the owner of this large family home too busy to take advantage of his Palm Springs home so he has asked us to sell for him. 7 bedrooms, 6½ baths, large combination family room and dining room—large lot with pool. Excellent value.

INCOME

$38,500—4 units near walking distance to Safeway. Thrifty and surroundings, owner apartment, especially nice—flagstone fireplace in living room, built-in range and oven in kitchen, large bedroom. A real chance for a good buy.

'Name the Area' Winners to Be Announced Wednesday

Promotion Contest for Area

PALM DESERT — Winners of the "name the area" contest will be publicly announced here next Wednesday night. Chamber of Commerce officials said today.

A $100 cash prize will be awarded to the contest entrant whose suggested name for the Palm Desert area is chosen by a panel of judges.

THE CONTEST was designed to select a name to identify the area in a nationwide promotional program. Originally intended for the area from Rancho Mirage to Indian Wells, the name chosen will now be used only for the immediate Palm Desert area.

Dick Coffin, chairman of the now defunct committee for Community Development, said the original plan was changed following committee merger with the Chamber of Commerce here.

THE JUDGES, Honorary Palm Desert Mayor Bing Crosby, Honorary Rancho Mirage Mayor Phil Harris, Ralph Kiner and Desi Arnaz, are to announce the winner Thanksgiving Eve.

Respectively, will be given to the first, second and third place contestants.

Sales of foreign cars have doubled every year for the past three years in the United States.

It is estimated that there are more than 12,000 laundries in this country.

Reports on Students

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — (UPI) — Most young Americans studying for the Roman Catholic priesthood have at least one relative who is a priest or otherwise associated directly with the religious life.

This was reported by the Rev. Joseph H. Fichter, S. J., visiting professor of sociology at the University of Notre Dame, who also said that most priests-to-be come from middle-class families and are graduated from hometown high schools before entering the seminary.

YUCCA VALLEY HOSPITAL DRIVE TAKES AIM AT $100,000 MARK

YUCCA VALLEY — Sale of associate memberships in the Yucca Valley Chamber of Commerce which is aimed at providing $100,000 for a hospital in the High Desert area, has shifted into high gear.

Chamber of Commerce spokesmen said that the sale of the memberships is now being conducted on "a campaign basis" throughout Yucca Valley.

THE ASSOCIATE membership will entitle each purchaser to one chance in a drawing for a $25,000 "Golden Medallion" home. The house is being erected by members of Yucca Valley communities who have chipped in with time, money, materials and labor to build the house.

Yucca Valley Chamber President Roy Roush will assist a film star, whose name has not been revealed, in drawing the winning name on Dec. 20.

Funds collected from the sale of associate memberships have been deposited in a Yucca Valley Hospital Building Fund at the Security-First National Bank here.

A WEEKEND "PUSH" one week before the drawing, on Dec. 12-13-14, will augment the drive and the fund, Chamber officials said.

"Western Night" will be held on Dec. 12 at Burnt Mountain Dude Ranch and a "Western Horseman's Marathon Ride" will begin at 8 p.m. in the center of town. Entrants should write Buck Brown, Box 155, Yucca Valley, for entry information.

ON SATURDAY, Dec. 13, the Celebrity Golf Tournament began at Hi Desert Country Club, after a chuck wagon breakfast and desert trail breakfast ride. A celebrity luncheon in the afternoon will precede a "Fast draw" contest.

A Junior Western Gymkhana is scheduled for the afternoon and a variety show and marathon ride, begun a day earlier, will continue.

ON SUNDAY, ANOTHER breakfast ride and chuck wagon breakfast will precede a showing of three-quarter midget racers and a senior Western gymkhana. The Celebrity Golf Tournament ends Sunday afternoon.

Cathedral City Rotary Slates Ex-Triple Champ for Dec. 1

CATHEDRAL CITY — Henry Armstrong, the only pugilist in the history of the sport to hold three world championships at one time, will be the featured guest of the Cathedral City Rotary Club when it meets at Laury's Steak Ranch on Dec. 1.

Armstrong will be augmented by Rev. Jerry Owens, who at one time was a sparring partner for another world champion, Max Baer.

The Rotarians, who met Monday at Laury's, were advised to make preparation now or the Rotary District Conference scheduled for Coronado in March.

Robert Y. Hollingsworth, deputy district governor from Escondido, also urged the Cathedral City Rotary to plan for representation at the 30th annual International Convention which will be held in New York in June.

Hollingsworth, featured at Monday's meeting, discussed current Rotary programs with the membership of the Cathedral City club.

New Community Church of C.C. Under Discussion

CATHEDRAL CITY — Members and trustees of the Cathedral City Community Church have discussed plans and contracts for their proposed new church with representatives of the Corona Del Mar architects planning the building.

A delegate from the Blurock, Hougan and Ellerbrock firm met with the church people for dinner at Laury's Steak Ranch recently.

Representing the church were Stated Clerk Rev. Harvey Harper, General Presbyter Ian Fraser of the Riverside Presbytery, Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor of Cathedral City Community Church; and Mrs. Geraldine Good all, donor of the property on which the building is to be erected.

Members of the building committee, also in attendance, were Mrs. Adrian Keller, Paul Clark, Berton Lamb, Robert Sing and Ed Dering. Trustees attending were Don Veitch and Al Lake.

Two Village Hotelmen Join 'Master Hosts'

Roland Richter, manager of Oasis Hotel here, and D. W. Metzdorf, vice president of Western Hotels Inc., have just become members of "Master Hosts," an organization of hotel and motel operators.

This group, which includes 122 hotel and motel operators, will hold its national meeting in Biloxi Miss., later this month.

Metzdorf is a member representing his Lancaster and Caravan Inn. Travelers by motor wishing to make reservations at the next Master Host hotel or motel on their route, may do so free of charge at any of the lodgings which are members of the group.

Johnson Says 'Not Candidate'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) says he's "not a candidate" for the presidential nomination in 1960.

He told reporters Wednesday that not only was he not a candidate but, "I do not expect to be one and the only job I'll seek is the one I hold."

Planners Silent On Gas Station For Saks Lot

Palm Springs Planning Commission this week failed to take any action on a conditional use permit request from Gilbert and Rothschild to construct a service station in the center of the Saks parking lot.

Although there were some protests to the granting of the permit, Attorney Henry Cleary pointed out that all but one of the protests came from other service station interests in that vicinity.

PLANNING DIRECTOR Hy Ranes pointed out to the commission that even with the approval of the permit for the station, the necessary parking for the new stores would be more than adequate to handle the requirements of the parking code.

The commission plans to make a trip to the site to inspect the proposed plan.

AT THE SESSION, the commission did approve a conditional use permit for the construction of a 156 foot radio tower for radio station KPAL; approved a change of zone from R-3 to R-1 in the Cahuilla Hills area; and approved an application for tentative map of Ranch Club Estates No. 1, by Noel Clarke.

A request by Architect John Clark for approval of a proposed site plan and program for relocation of the Palm Springs Health Center was granted subject to the submission of renderings of the building and the landscaping.

Burial Insurance For Ages 1 to 80

One person may now register for self or entire family under the plan of funeral insurance. Cost only a few cents a day. In time of need regardless of how little has been paid, the plan pays the funeral bill. For example, a complete funeral was paid for recently when only $4.58 had been paid. Issued by an admitted legal reserve insurer. Good in Palm Springs or at any Funeral Chapel in United States. For free information write Burial Plan, P. O. Box 359 or Phone FA 8-3409.
